An Attractive Border of Lovely Darwin Tulips

FLOWERING BULBS

FOR FALL PLANTING

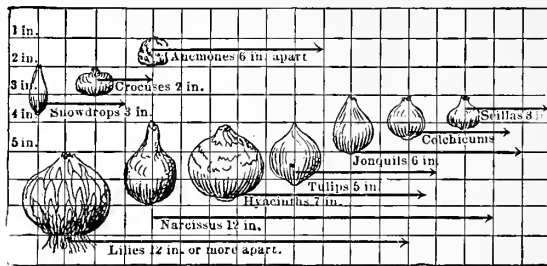

GEO. TAIT & SONS

NORFOLK, VA.

HINTS ON BULB CULTURE

In the South, bulbs should be planted outdoors from the middle of October to the middle of December. The ground should be well spaded, and a liberal quantity of good sheep-manure worked into the soil will greatly increase the size and color of the blooms. (See chart for depth to plant.)

During the winter, nothing adds so much to the attractiveness of the home as a bowl of beautiful sweet-scented Paper-White Narcissi, Chinese Sacred Lilies, or California Freesias. Bulbs of these varieties can be started as early as September, and by successive plantings one may have them in bloom from Thanksgiving until Easter. Grow them in pots of Prepared Bulb Fiber, which does not require drainage, holds moisture, and allows the roots to penetrate freely. Keep the fiber damp by spraying it lightly each day, but never allow it to become too wet. Keep all bulbs, except Freesias, Callas, and Lilies-of-the-Valley, in a dark place from two to four weeks to develop roots.

HYACINTHS

Although less graceful than the lily, the Hyacinth is still Queen of the Dutch Bulbs, and is the most familiar of them all. It is perfect in form, of beautiful coloring, and carries its burden of fragrant bells with a stateliness characteristic of no other small flower. It does equally as well indoors as in the garden, and can be grown in fiber, water, sand, or soil. For indoor blooming, it is best to plant the bulbs in Prepared Bulb Fiber, and bring them to the light at intervals of ten days or two weeks, for a succession of bloom.

NARCISSUS, or DAFFODILS

Few bulbous flowers are more graceful than the Daffodils. While they do not possess the gorgeous colorings of the Darwin and Cottage tulips, the fact that they come into bloom during April, and precede the tulips, suggests their use. You can plant Daffodils in scattered clumps about the garden, and arrange them in borders. Daffodils can be grown in any ordinary garden soil.

Paper-White Grandiflora Narcissus

The most satisfactory flowers that can be grown in the house for winter blooming, and they require little care. Five or six bulbs in a bowl of Prepared Bulb Fiber will give a splendid display of beautiful white flowers, borne in clusters and very fragrant. The bulbs grow very rapidly, usually blooming in about six weeks, and will thrive under nearly every condition, provided they are given fresh air and not too much heat. For a succession of bloom the bulbs should be started every ten days from September to January. When grown in Prepared Bulb Fiber, care should be taken to keep the Fiber moist, but not too wet. They can also be grown in water (see illustration), but it is best to change the water occasionally to keep it from becoming stagnant. Mammoth Bulbs, 70 cts. per doz., $5 per 100. Selected Bulbs, 60 cts. per doz., $4 per 100, delivered.

Chinese Sacred Lily

Blooms much like the Paper-White narcissus, but with pronounced yellow centers. The plant makes a stronger growth than the Paper-White narcissus, but the bulbs are treated in the same way—set in Prepared Bulb Fiber, or in pebbles. 25 cts. each, $2.50 per doz.

Freesia

Very popular for indoor blooming, and can be grown almost as readily as Paper-White narcissus. There is only one important point to remember—they must have good drainage.

Purity. Snow-white flowers blotched with yellow; rather fragrant. 50 cts. per doz., $4 per 100, delivered.

Rainbow Mixture. Shades of pink, purple, lilac, blue, and orange. 75 cts. per doz., $5 per 100, delivered.

Crocus

Just imagine a fresh green lawn with yellow and white and blue Crocuses peeping up through the sod and opening their flowers to the spring sunshine. To be most effective, Crocuses should be used in large quantities, and even a small lawn can use five hundred. Just try them this year—you will wonder why you did not have them before.

30 cts. per doz., $2 per 100, except where noted; delivered

Maximilian. Brilliant blue; large flowers.

Mont Blanc. Large, pure white flowers.

Calla Lilies

WHITE CALLA LILY. Pot the bulbs so that the top protrudes slightly above the surface, in a stiff clay soil, mixed with a small quantity of well-rotted cow-manure. When growth has started, sprinkle the soil with warm water several times a week. Calla Lilies are only successful when planted indoors during the fall. Mammoth Size, 50 cts. each, $5 per doz., delivered. First Size, 35 cts. each, $3.50 per doz., delivered.

YELLOW CALLA LILY. The green foliage, spotted with creamy white, forms a splendid background for the handsome yellow flowers. An unusual novelty. Mammoth Size, 60 cts. each, $6 per doz., delivered. First Size, 50 cts. each, $5 per doz., delivered.

Lilium candidum. Glorious pure white blooms borne on high, graceful stems

Lilium candidum (Madonna Lily)

To grow this Lily successfully, bulbs should be planted as early as procurable in the fall, and be given a light dusting of powdered sulphur. They should be set where they can get plenty of light and air, and covered with not more than 3 inches of soil. Mammoth Size, 50 cts. each, $5 per doz., delivered. First Size, 35 cts. each, $3.50 per doz., delivered.

Lily-of-the-Valley

These are most effective when planted irregularly in small groups. Place the crowns about 2 inches below the surface. The flowers will be larger and finer if given an occasional dressing of well-rotted manure. Strong clumps for outdoor planting, 65 cts. each, $6.50 per doz., delivered.

Peonies

Peonies have been remarkably improved upon in the last few years, and can now be obtained in new colors and types of beauty. The roots can be planted in the fall or early spring. They will do well in any good garden soil. Be careful not to get them too deep; if the buds are covered with more than 2 inches of soil, the quantity of flowers is likely to be limited.

75 cts. each, $7.50 per doz., except where noted; delivered

Spencer or Orchid-Flowering Sweet Peas

Each year a number of new Sweet Peas are placed upon the market, with extraordinary claims about their colors and sizes. We carefully test all the new varieties and add the really good ones to our list. As a result of this policy, our list of Sweet Peas is excellent, and contains the best varieties obtainable in this country.

In the South, Sweet Peas may be sown in the fall or early in the spring. To secure large flowers and brilliant colors, sow the seeds in a rich soil that has been heavily manured, and in a location where the plants will get plenty of sunshine. Many experts make a trench about 10 inches deep and fill the bottom with well-rotted manure, covering this with 2 inches of good soil. The seeds are covered with 2 inches of earth, and as the seedlings show above the surface, the rest of the soil is raked into the trench. When watering, try to keep the water near the roots, since sprinkling the vines seems to do more harm than good. Pick the blooms regularly, and they will bear until killed by extreme heat or frost.

We have taken great pains in the preparation of our stocks, and know that you will find all the varieties worth while. They will do well under ordinary conditions; to secure extra-large flowers you must give them cultural attention, and sow the seeds where the soil is adapted to their needs.

At the prices given, Sweet Peas will be sent postpaid.

Tait's Thorobred Lawn Grass

SOME of the most beautiful lawns in America have been made with this mixture of grass seed, which has stood the test of many climates, and must not be compared with the ordinary Emerald, Evergreen and Central Park Mixtures usually sold. It is the result of over fifty years of untiring study and experiment, coupled with the endeavor to give those who appreciate and desire a lawn a grass-seed mixture that will produce a rich green sod in six weeks after planting, and yet make a fine and thick turf the longer it stands. It is composed of fine-leaved hardy grasses, which will not only stand the heat of summer, but outlive the severest winters. Do not be afraid of sowing grasses too thickly, as a heavy seeding always means a better sod. We recommend for ground that has been properly prepared: one quart to 150 square feet; four to five bushels per acre. Price, qt. 30 cts.; 2 qts. 55 cts.; 4 qts. $1; pk. $1.90; bushel, of about 24 lbs., $7.50. Delivered.
